

What a pleasure the do not call list really is. It's great not being harassed in my own home by intrusive phone calls especially around dinner time. Please keep this quality of law restriction in place.